

MAJ.-GEN. BELL SEES PLATTSBURG CAMP

Commander of Eastern Department, U. S. A., Drops In for Sunday Breakfast.

TRAINING ON TO-MORROW

New England Sends 2,500 More Student Officers—Overcoats in Vogue.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., May 13.—Major Gen. J. Franklin Bell, commanding the Eastern Department of the United States army, unexpectedly arrived at the Officers' Reserve Corps training camp this morning in time to breakfast with Lieut-Col Paul Wolf, the camp commandant. He was accompanied by his aide, Capt. Archibald.

Gen. Bell later had all the commanding officers of the camp before him and informally congratulated them on the appearance of the cantonment and the rapid progress made toward completing the camp buildings under construction. While he talked the tap, tap, tap of a hundred hammers in the hands of the many carpenters at work kept up a constant din.

The General told the officers that he wanted each and every one of them to "put your toes in the mud" a minute or two during the course of their service. He emphasized the necessity of giving the students in the camp an intensive course in military science, and that much depended upon the success of the camp. He said he was deeply interested in this course, which accounted for the unusually early departure from Governors Island the night before. After inspecting the camp from end to end, going through barracks, kitchen and mess halls, he left late in the afternoon for New York.

Drills will begin in earnest Tuesday morning when the real machinery of the camp will be set in motion. To-morrow the second contingent from New England will arrive, 2,500 strong. That will bring the New England quota up to its required strength of 5,000 men.

There was little doing among the students off-duty to-day, many of them taking a brief respite and going to the Plattsburgh hotels for dinner. The weather continues cool and overcoats are much in vogue. Across the ruffled waters of Lake Champlain, from which a cold stiff wind constantly sweeps the snow-covered ridges of the Green Mountains, there is constant reminder that spring is still lingering in winter's lap.

TRAINING CAMPS FULL.

Every District Reports a Surplus Waiting Next Call.

When the fourteen officers' training camps open for actual work on Tuesday, there will not be a vacant space in any of them, except for the three Training Camp Association reported yesterday. Every district has reported that its camp was oversubscribed and that the applicants who did not make this camp will be reserved for a second camp, possibly about August 20.

One of the remarkable facts about the recruiting of soldiers is that for the training camps was that the full number of 40,000 was obtained in the short space of twenty days and that probably several hundred thousand applicants reported at the various recruiting stations.

Although the recruiting headquarters for the First Reserve Engineers Regiments at 150 Sixth Ave. yesterday, it was not making actual enlistments. Many men applied during the day who were given all available information regarding service in the overseas expedition and were told to report for actual enlistment on Saturday. To date 36,000 have been enlisted in the new regiments. By next Saturday the regimental officials hope to be able to report to Washington that it has been recruited to war strength.

The navy recruiting stations yesterday reported that seven enlistments had been obtained during the day.

CLUE TO $225,000 GEM THIEF FOUND

Arrest of Man Who Looted Allen Home Expected.

The jewels stolen from Bolton Priory, the Pelham Manor home of Frederick H. Allen, last Friday, are to be worth $225,000. While police do not yet know the identity of the thief, so far neither he nor the jewels have been found.

R. H. Marks, chief of police, Pelham Manor, left his office for New York City last night, saying that an important clue had been discovered. He said that he is sure the author of the theft will soon be in custody within twenty-four hours, and further that the jewels are of such great value that they will be difficult in disposing of them before the police can get on the trail of their whereabouts.

It was strongly hinted last night that a servant recently in the employ of the Allen home who is missing has since turned out to be a jewel thief of international reputation, and that other mysterious disappearances of jewels have occurred in homes where he was employed.

Mr. Allen last night said that everything points to an "inside job," and that he is convinced that one of the thief will not be long deferred.

The robbery occurred while Mr. and Mrs. Allen were in New York attending the reception at the Metropolitan Opera House to Marshal Joffre.

Mr. Allen said he discovered yesterday the thief visited his dressing room and stole several valuable scarfs, pins, one of which he valued at $10,000.

RED CROSS FUND ENRICHED.

Shriners Give a Benefit in the Casino Theatre.

The coffers of the Red Cross were enriched last night when a big benefit performance, given under the auspices of Mecca Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at the Casino Theatre, Third Avenue and Broadway, was played to a capacity house. Every seat was taken and even standing room was at premium.

As yesterday was "Mother's Day" the white carnation was displayed in the audience with the red x's of the Shriners. Among them were Arnold Dahl, Clifton Crawford, Anna Weston, Doyle and Dixon, Gus Edwards' Revue, John Lorenz, Bill Rogers, Billy B. Van, Amella Bingham, Louis Mann, Lydia Leckie, William Bonelli, Arthur Cunningham, Fred Gandy and Mervin Lyle, Weston, Georges Karl, George Primosi and company, Alice Hastings, Milton and Sargent, Aborn's Operatic Stars, Weston and Morris, Billie Barlow, the Four Seagulls, Frank Dillon, Kelly and Wilder, Gene Hall, Mine, Eugene Zaneo, DiPrimo, Signor S. Zanco DePrimo and the Mecca Temple Band.

Speeding Trolley Service.
The New York Railways Company is launching a campaign to facilitate more uninterrupted service. To this end the cooperation of department stores, manufacturing concerns and truckmen generally is being appealed to keep vehicles out of car tracks.
